

On Friday May 29, 2020 I received a request to for my consent——HERE IT WHAT I CONSENT TO EXTEND——

I CONSENT TO EXTEND THE SAME KIND OF TREATMENT
I RECEIVE TO EACH OF THE PARTIES IN THIS LAWSUIT.

Your clients/ both Defendants committed Identity Theft —Identity theft and identity fraud are terms used to refer to all types of crime in which someone wrongfully obtains and uses another person's personal data in some way that involves fraud or deception typically for economic gain.

WorthPoint did so knowingly and Estate Auctions literally told me to hire an attorney when I informed them of this fraudulent information and action. No apology or no admission of a mistake was extended from either party.

In 2015, I had two solo exhibits, the latter at a museum with four write ups in print and on the internet. At the same time this fraudulent link of an alleged sale from 2012 appeared on the internet. The unnecessary problems created by Estate Auction and WorthPoint has caused many setbacks for me. I have been derailed from my artistic career for the past five years. My goal now is to enhance, help and the shape the legal cases, laws and destiny of other artists who have been wrongfully used and or abused by uncaring and unethical individuals such as the Defendants named in my lawsuit.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Annamarie Trombetta".

Annamarie Trombetta, Plaintiff

Dated : May 31, 2020

175 East 96th Street (12 R)

New York , New York 10128

Filed Electronically and mailed to The Honorable Judge Sarah Cave

Cc: Anderson Josiah Duff, counsel for Defendants Estate Auctions, Inc. and Norb and Marie Novocin (by email)

Arnie Lutzker arnie@lutzker.com and David Hirschberg dmh@devoredemarco.com

counsel for Defendants Will Seipple and WorthPoint Corp. on June 1, 2020